present the first of a series of three community housing seminars

Seminar 1 – 7/10/04

BUILDING SUSTAINABLE HOUSING ORGANISATIONS

- What is involved in providing a 'good service?'
- What makes a sustainable housing organisation?
- What financial arrangements help sustainability?
- What skills and knowledge do we need for an organisation to achieve this?

These and other related and vital issues will be examined at this one-day forum, which will comprise working, local and interstate presenters and facilitated workshops.

The forum will provide an opportunity for community housing staff at manager, co-ordinator, team leader level and board members to consider, discuss and analyse, these and many more issues. There will be ample opportunity for discussion about the fundamental issues.
